About the Archives of Caring in Nursing:

The Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing is dedicated to caring: advancing the science, studying its meaning, practicing the art, and living it day-to-day.

The Archives of Caring in Nursing has as its mission preserving the history of caring in nursing, inviting the study of caring, advancing caring as an essential domain of nursing knowledge, and creating meaning for the practice of nursing. We are committed to securing the papers of Caring scholars, and developing and maintaining the Archives to provide access to primary sources.

On-site use of the materials in the collections is available by appointment.

Nursing Leadership Institute

The Nursing Leadership Institute (NLI) at the Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing was founded in 2002 to provide nurses with the training they require to succeed in a wide range of health care and educational settings. The NLI concept evolved from meetings with nurse executives in the area, who expressed a need to prepare nurse leaders grounded in the essential values of nursing, with the complex knowledge needed to lead competently and compassionately.
