Background Information: [in progress]

In 1993, Kathleen Valentine summarized the history of the IAHC conferences at a Planning Committee meeting for the 1996 Conference. This is a paraphrase: In 1978 a group of seven started a support group that evolved into the IAHC which was incorporated in 1991. The first conference was in 1978, with about 85 invitees. In 1985 the group voted to expand to a national and international audience. Early conferences were planned with a "retreat-like atmosphere" but this became more difficult as the conferences grew to 200 or more attendees.

The International Journal for Human Caring was established with the first issue in 1996.

Governance:

1981-1988      Founder and Chair, Madeleine Leininger
Presidents, 1988 – present:
1988-1990      Madeleine Leininger

1990-1993	Delores Gaut
1993-1996	Anne Boykin
1996-1999	Kathleen Valentine
1999-2002	Zane Robinson Wolf
2002-2004	Carol Picard
2004-2006	Gwen Sherwood
2006-2008	Dawn Freshwater
2008-2010	Donna Taliaferro

General note on collection processing and contents: IAHC materials were transferred to Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing over a period of years, probably beginning in 2003 or 2004, with the most recent accretion in 2006. During this time period the Archives were not in existence, and no direct responsibility was assigned to processing or maintaining the IAHC materials. As a result, the order of the materials was not well preserved. Items were sorted (when necessary) by subject or date to provide some measure of order. In addition, materials from the Kathleen Valentine Papers collection that directly pertained only to IAHC were integrated into the IAHC Archives folders by subject.
