Christine E. Lynn College of Nursing
Florida Atlantic University
Leadership Excellence Award

This award is presented to a student at each level in the College of Nursing: Pre-licensure, RN-BSN, Masters, and Doctoral.

The Leadership Excellence Award is presented to a student who demonstrates leadership among peers, in the College of Nursing, the university, the community, or the profession. This is demonstrated through leadership, advocacy, and mentoring activities that portray respect for person as caring and assist others to grow in competence to know and express caring. The student represents the College and the profession in a way that lives out the philosophy of nursing grounded in caring by creating a culture where each person is encouraged, supported, and valued. Participation in nursing practice, college, university, and community programs and organizations, as well as informal leadership among peers in class or clinical practice may be considered.

Nominee name and educational level: _____
Nominated by: _____
Date submitted: _____

Please describe how the student fills the above criteria for this award: