This contract is an agreement between the student ____________________________________ and his/her instructor ___________________________________________ for __________ semester hours of academic credit to be earned during the ____________ semester, ____________.

1. Introduction: ________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

2. Objectives: _________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

3. Plan of work (by objective, if appropriate) _______________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

4. Tentative resource list: _______________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

5. Proposed product(s): _________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

6. Criteria for evaluation: _______________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

I accept that the above statements define the contractual agreement for Directed Independent Study and will govern the student’s participation in the program and his/her evaluation.

_________________________________________ _________
Student Signature and Date

_________________________________________ _________
Instructor Signature and Date

9/97